Pre – launch ceremony for RPL under on 06 mar 17

Mar 2017, New Delhi: Peregrine Guarding, a leading security firm, has been selected for conducting RPL for 1800 beneficiaries out of the 5000 earmarked for the Pilot Launch under PMKVY 2 to Security Sector Skill Development Council (SSSDC) which is acting as a Project Implementing Agency (PIA). The ceremony was held at United Services Institute (USI) , Rao Tula Marg, Vasant Vihar, New Delhi in the presence of significant representation from the Security Industry. The other participants were Mi2C Security & Facilities Pvt Ltd, Pratap Security & Allied Training Institute, Atidipta Solutions Pvt Ltd and Nexus Security Services Pvt Ltd.

During the ceremony 10 guards from Peregrine Guarding Pvt. Ltd. (PGPL) participated, these 10 guards were certified last year under Recognition of Prior Learning scheme. These guards were given badges by the chief guest. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) Scheme is the scheme under PMKY, in which individuals with prior learning experience or skills in the security sector shall be assessed and certified. RPL aims to align the competencies of the unregulated workforce of the country to the National Skills Qualifications Framework (NSQF) for unarmed security guards. Project Implementing Agencies (PIAs), which is Security Sector Skill Development Council (SSSDC) for security sector have been incentivized under this scheme to implement RPL projects to address knowledge gaps.

While addressing to the gathering Brig. Rajan Oberoi, Group CEO, Peregrine Guarding Pvt. Ltd said; “We assure that the company will implement the scheme in totality. We believe that the scheme will not only benefit the individual guards working with the company in terms of reward money and certification but will also enable them to bridge their skills deficits, if any, by way of training provided under the scheme. The certification to the guards will help company in establishing quality of our work force and help providing quality services to the respective clients. We are looking forward to participate in a big way towards the success of the PMKVY (RPL) scheme, so that the security guards get their due recognition in the industry.”

The participating guards also spoke regarding their experience and benefits of the scheme. They expressed their happiness and thanked the Govt. for giving them opportunity to certify their prior learning which will help them for future growth in the industry. The event was also attended by 50 smartly turned out guards from all the 5 companies who will be the future beneficiaries of the scheme.
